

Place artwork on “Blank Layer”

If you need to make front and back artwork, you can duplicate this file and use two different files or you can make folders in your layers palette to section front from back.

The solid line represents the cut line, and the inside dotted line is there so you will know not to put text or prominent images outside of this line.