Place artwork on “Blank Layer”

If you need to make outside and inside artwork, you can duplicate this file and use two different files or you can make folders in your layers palette to section outside from inside.

The solid line represents the cut line, and the inside dotted line is there so you will know not to put text or prominent images outside of this line.